

South Africa - Monaco Rugby Exchange

Collège Charles III - 17.03.2017

As part of the « South Africa – Monaco Rugby Exchange », H.S.H. Princess Charlene was present at the Collège Charles III, on Friday 17 March, where the Monegasque students were able to meet and mix with the South African rugby team who will be participating in the Saint Devote Tournament tomorrow.

The Department of Education, Youth and Sport offered these young South Africans a warm welcome. The discussions with the international 7th grade students from the Collège Charles III and Collège François d'Assise – Nicolas Barré were very amicable.

The young South Africans then shared a friendly meal with the students from the Collège Charles III in their school cafeteria.

At H.S.H. Princess Charlene's request, Her Fondation partnered with the Monaco Red Cross in order to offer the South African children an introduction to first aid (semi-automatic defibrillator [SAD] and CPR training).

At the end of this session, H.S.H. Princess Charlene then provided valuable advice during a swimming lesson.
