

“Snapper pour tous”

In collaboration with the Princess Charlene of Monaco Foundation, the Oceanographic Museum—organised for the second time the "Snapper pour tous" (Snapper for all) contest.

H.S.H. Princess Charlene congratulated the winners of the special needs education class from the Bischoffsheim School in Nice during a ceremony aboard the “Yersin” on Wednesday, 10th June.

The main objective of "Snapper pour tous" is to convey to the participating students that it is crucial to preserve the marine environment but also to instill confidence in themselves as well as in their future by valuing their work, their creativity and personal and collective investment.

200 students aged 8 to 12 years, mostly with learning difficulties or coming from underprivileged areas, attended the 2015 edition.
